Dear comrades,

As decided in the earlier meetings held at Chennai and Mumbai to review exercise of the successful implementations of decision to observe the strike on 18.12.2013 was undertaken in the meeting held at Hyderabad on 23.12.2013 under the Chairmanship of Com.K.K.Nair, Chairman, UFBU. AIBOA was represented by Com.V.Anilkumar, Secretary and General Secretary, A.P.State Committee along with Com.Giri Srinivas, Secretary, A.P.State Committee.

The meeting expressed its condolence over the sad demise of Hon'ble Minister of Labour Sri Sis Ram Ola, who passed away recently.

The meeting recorded its appreciation for the wholehearted participation of entire workforce of the constituent unions in making the 18th strike a massive success. Further, it also placed on record for the solidarity support extended by the "CTUs", United Forum of Reserve Bank Officers and Employees and also from AIEA.

In the event of IBA failing to improve the offer and also conclude the wage revision within a specified timeframe, after due deliberations, it was decided to observe the following action programmes.

JANUARY 2014	Month long preparatory meetings, rallies, protest demonstrations, postering, badge wearing etc.
ON OR BEFORE 10.01.2014	Submission of memorandum by all employees demanding wage revision addressed to – Prime Minister, Finance Minister and Chairman IBA
48 hours strike	06.00 am – 20.01.2014 to 06.00 am – 22.01.2014
FEBRUARY 2014	Signature campaign by all employees and also by the Public against Banking Sector reforms.
FEB 2014 / MARCH 2014	More strike actions including indefinite strike.

This situation has been forced upon us by the Bankers and the owners. The reply to their response should be through a sustained programmes of actions culminating in a "48 hours strike action from 06.00 am of 20.01.2014 to 06.00 am of 22.01.2014".

Onward march to execute preparatory exercise for the 48 hours strike.
